Administration Report of the Jodhpur State for the year 1938-39.

CHAPTER I.

Jodhpur State is the largest in Rajputana in respect of area which is 36,085 square miles or more than one-fourth of that of the entire Province. Its greatest length from the north-east to south-west is about 320 miles and its greatest breadth is 170 miles. It is bounded on the north by Bikaner, on the north-west by Jaisalmer, on the west by Sindh, on the south-west by Palanpur, on the south by Sirohi, on the south-east by Udaipur, on the east by Ajmer-Merwara and Kishangarh and on the north-east by Jaipur. The population increased by 15·4 per cent between 1921 and 1931, viz from 18,41,642 to 21,25,982, of whom 86 percent are Hindus, 8 percent Mohomedans and 5 percent Jains. With the retrocession of 24 Merwara villages to Marwar the population increased by 8,866 and the area by 73 Sq. miles.

Area, Boundaries and Population.

2. The country is sterile, sandy and inhospitable towards the north and west, but improves gradually from a mere desert in the far west and north to comparatively fertile and hospitable lands in the north-east, east and south-east in the neighbourhood of the Aravalli Hills. Rivers play a very subordinate part in moulding the surface features of the country. The only important river is the Luni which has several tributaries, the chief being the Litri, the Raipur Lilri, the Guhiya, the Bandi, the Sukri and the Jawaï on the left bank and the Jojari on the right, but none of them is perennial. The supply of sub-soil water is very limited, often 200 to 300 feet below the surface and is generally brackish. As the Runn of Cutch is approached the wells become more and more salish, the country flatter and bushes stunted and few. As the soil to the north and north-west is rich in salts, it affords vast pastures for grazing and breeding of cattle. The horses of Mallani, camels of Sheo and cattle of Sanchoe and Nagaur are famous for their size and strength.

Physical.

3. The rainfall is scanty and capricious, varying from an average of 8 inches to 24 inches. The average rainfall of Jodhpur City itself is 14 inches per annum. The State has, therefore, resorted to building Bundhs and tanks wherever possible which supply water in lean years. The climate is dry and healthy. The natural lakes are all saline, the principal ones being at Sambhar, Didwana and Pachpadra; smaller depressions of the same kind exist at Kuchaman, Phalodi, Pokaran and other places. At Sambhar, Didwana and Pachpadra salt is manufactured and the salt lakes at these places have been leased out to the British Government.

History.

4. His Highness the Maharaja of Jodhpur is the head of the Rathor clan of Rajputs. The Rathors are a branch of the great solar race. They were originally known as Rashtra or Rashtrik. Rashtra was subsequently, by general use, crystallised into Rathor. The earliest mention of them is found in the edicts of Asoka as rulers of the Deccan. There follows a gap in history till the seventh century A. D., the period of the earliest known King Abhimanyu, and from this date their record is much clearer. During a period of some three centuries previous to 973 A. D., the Rashtrakutas provided nineteen kings in the Deccan, the last of whom was Karakraja in Samvat 1029 or 972 A. D. When the Deccan Kingdom was broken up, they established themselves in Central India and made Kanauj their Capital. The last ruler of this kingdom was Jaya Chandra whose descendants migrated to western Rajputana and founded the principality of Marwar. In Rajputana amongst the Rajput clans, the Rathors head the list in numerical strength and area of country held.

5. The present Ruler, Air Commodore His Highness Raj Rajeshwar Saramad Raja-i-Hind Maharaja Dhraj, Sri Sir Umaid Singhji Sahib Bahadur G. C. S. I., G. C. I. E., K. C. V. O., A. D. C., is the 35th ruler from Rao Sihaji. He was born on 8th July 1903 and ascended the throne in October 1918. His Highness has one younger brother, Maharaj Sri Ajit Singhji Sahib born on 1st May 1907 and two sisters, of whom the elder is Her Highness the Maharani of Jaipur, while the younger is Her Highness the Maharani of Rewa. His Highness has five sons and one daughter. The eldest, Maharaj Kumar Sri Hanwant Singhji Sahib, was born on the 16th June, 1923, the second Maharaj Kumar Sri Himmat Singhji Sahib on the 21st June 1925, the third Maharaj Kumar Sri Hari Singhji Sahib was born on the 21st September 1929, the fourth Maharaj Kumar Sri Devi Singhji Sahib, was born on the 20th September 1933 and the fifth Maharaj Kumar Sahib was born on the 20th October 1937. The daughter was born on the 14th December, 1930.

6. The following States are connected by marriage ties with the Jodhpur House:—

Udaipur, Jaipur, Jaisalmer, Rewa, Bundi, Sirohi, Narsingarh and Jamnagar.

The younger branches of the Jodhpur family are Bikaner, Kishengarh, Idar, Rutlam, Sailana, Sitamau and Jhabua.

Revenue & Expenditure.

7. The gross revenue of the State during the year under report was Rs. 1,57,71,523, while the gross expenditure excluding Capital outlay and investments was Rs. 1,46,77,886, as against Rs. 1,68,85,019 and Rs. 1,30,35,738 respectively in the previous year. The sum spent on Capital works amounted to Rs. 39,57,733.

8. The State pays annually Rs. 1,08,000 as tribute to the British Government. The payment of Rs. 1,15,000 towards the maintenance of a Military force under the treaty of 1818 ceased from 1937-38 on account of the disbandment of the Mina Corps which was stationed at Erinpura. A sum of Rs. 11,46,754 was spent during the year on the Indian States Forces consisting of a regiment of Cavalry, a regiment of Infantry and the State Band.

The extra grants sanctioned during the year inclusive of a further allotment of Rs. 15,08,800 for Famine amounted to Rs. 18,84,600 and taking into account the plus and minus figures from Service Heads to Capital and vice versa, the sanctioned grant was Rs. 1,56,11,180. Against this grant, the actual expenditure amounted to Rs. 1,46,77,886 or a lapse of Rs. 9,33,294 or 6% of the total allotment. This lapse is larger than usual and is explained by greater economy exercised to fight famine conditions.

The increase in arrears is mainly due to famine and obstruction by some Jagirdars in contracts let out in Jagir areas. Recoveries

5. Brief details of the working of various minerals are given below:— Minerals,

Fullers Earth.—The export during the year under report was 1,850 tons against 1,737 tons in the preceding year. This increase of 113 tons is due to the reduction of royalty granted in 1936-37. The cost of production was about Rs. 20,000.

Gypsum.—The export of gypsum from Bhadwasi, Barmer and Kavas was 20,546 tons, costing about Rs. 41,000 at quarry mouth, against 10,800 tons in the preceding year. The export from Bhadwasi alone which is the main source of the mineral, was 19,871 tons as against 10,314 tons in the preceding year. The increase was due to the grant of the Bhadwasi gypsum contract to the Associated Cement Companies.

The income from Gypsum was Rs. 14,461 as against Rs. 12,291 in the preceding year.

Lime & Lime Stone.—The export of Kali and Kachra Lime from Gotan decreased from 21,174 tons in the preceding year to 18,230 tons in the year under report mainly due to less demand from Sugar Factories. The total income from Lime and Lime-stone was, however, Rs. 65,607 against Rs. 66,721 in the previous year.

Marble.—The export of marble from Makrana was 8,408 tons during the year under report against 7,740 tons in the previous year, and the income was Rs. 41,424 against Rs. 38,981.

The number of leased out quarries at the close of the year was 200 as against 214 in the preceding year. Sixteen quarries were resumed on account of their remaining idle for over two years and only two quarries were let out.

Building Stone.—The income derived as royalty on stone removed by rail and road and quarry rent etc. was Rs. 70,644 against Rs. 65,772 in the preceding year. The increase is due to the higher contract price for Fidusar and Ratanada road royalty contracts.

Wolfram.—The Wolfram Mines at Degana remained idle throughout the year under report and the stock of 8 tons wolfram was also not sold owing to unfavourable rates.

Other Minerals.—The Mica, Felspar, Beryl and Graphite deposits of Chauadia, Kalakot, Kalab, Bijaji ka Guda in Pargana Jaitaran were leased out to Messrs. Chauth Mal Genesh of Jodhpur in the latter part of the year.

K. B. Rustomji C. Framji of Nasirabad despatched only 125 Mds. selenite against a minimum export of 250 tons in the second contract year although the royalty on the contract figure was paid by him.

20 tons Bentonite was sent to Messrs. The Assam Oil Co., Digboi departmentally.

Industries.

5. As in the previous years local made articles such as lacquer, ivory, tied and dyed cloths etc. were purchased from the manufacturers and sold departmentally. Exhibits were also sent to be displayed in the Swadeshi Exhibition held by All India Women Conference at Delhi in December 1938.

Exhibitions of Cottage or small Industries were held at Jodhpur, Bhavi and Jaitaran during the year under report.

The number of Cotton Ginning & Pressing Factories was 46 against 49 in the preceding year.

The construction of buildings for the Shri Unaid Mills at Pali progressed during the year and some machinery also arrived. Due to War the arrival of the remaining machinery is likely to be delayed.

7. Forest Department.

Mr. Sugan Chand Kothari, B. A., P. F. S., held charge of the Department Administration throughout the year under the control of the Home Minister.

Repairs to range offices, Chowkies, etc. were done at a total cost of Rs. 1,524 during this year against Rs. 1,231 in the previous year.

The number of leased out quarries at the close of the year was 200 as against 214 in the preceding year. Sixteen quarries were resumed on account of their remaining idle for over two years and only two quarries were let out.

7. Forest Department.

Mr. Sukan Chand Kothari, B. A., P. F. S., held charge of the Department Administration. throughout the year under the control of the Home Minister.

2. Forests in Marwar occupy nearly 458 square miles (including the Retroceded area 22.95 square miles) and are situated for the most part on the Western slopes of the Aravalli Hills in the Districts of Bali, Desuri, Sojat, Jetaran, Parbatsar, Siwana, Jalore and Jaswantpura. The Department was organised in 1888 when large forest areas were held in Jagir. The bulk was acquired either by the grant of cash compensation or by exchange. Such Jagir Forest areas, as were not acquired, are managed by the Forest Department, the proceeds, less management charges, in most cases being given to the Jagirdars concerned. Historical Survey.

The principal forest products are timber, fuel, grass, bamboo, honey, wax and certain tubers. Anwal (Cassia anticulata) whose bark yields useful tanning material is controlled by this Department whether found inside or outside the forests and is exploited by contract system; large quantities are exported to the principal markets of India.

3. Portions of Bada Bhakar, Chandna, Motisara, Devkund, Lalsagar, Bhuteshar, Chhitar and Bias-Ki-Baori blocks in Jodhpur Range covering an area of 4 square miles were released from the control of this Department. Thus the area of the Reserved Forests at the close of the year remained 458 sq. miles against 462 square miles in the preceding year. Reserved Forests.

4. Existing forest Boundary Pillars were repaired and white-washed at a total cost of Rs. 91 against Rs. 95 last year. 128 new pillars were erected in Grassia villages at a cost of Rs. 320. Demarcation.

5. The Forests are chiefly worked under the Coppice with standard systems with a 40 years' rotation. The coupes are leased out to contractors who manufacture and export charcoal to foreign markets such as Ajmer and Ahmedabad. During the year under report 20 coupes having an area of 2,837 acres were leased out to the contractors for Rs. 35,057 against 18 coupes with an area of 2,565 acres for Rs. 23,297 in the preceding year. The average price per acre realised came to Rs. 12 against Rs. 9 last year. Exploitation.

6. The number of forest offences investigated and disposed of during the year was 860 as against 779 of the last year. Of these one case was challaned to the Court and conviction was obtained while the others were departmentally compounded. The amount of compensation realised increased from Rs. 3,653 in the last year to Rs. 3,666 in this year. Forest Offences.

The cases of incendiarism increased from 6 of the last year to 24 due to very prolonged dry season during the year under report. About 11,524 acres of Forests were damaged as against 3 acres in the preceding year.

7. No new roads were constructed. The Katcha cart tracks to facilitate transport of fuel etc. were repaired at a cost of Rs. 92 against Rs. 41 of the last year. Roads & Buildings.

Repairs to range offices, Chowkies, etc. were done at a total cost of Rs. 1,524 during this year against Rs. 1,231 in the previous year.

A new Forest quarter was constructed at Bijaji-Ka-Gudha through the Public Works Department this year.

Jagir Forest.

8. The Jagir Forests which are managed by the Department on behalf of the Jagirdars yielded Rs. 7442 against Rs. 9,586 of the last year. The expenditure on supervision and management of these forests came to Rs. 3,636 against Rs. 3,702 of the last year.

Financial Results.

9. The total cash realisation during the year amounted to Rs. 1,27,491 against Rs. 1,23,764 in the preceding year. The rise in revenue is due to better prices of coupes this year.

The expenditure during the year came to Rs. 71,618 against Rs. 72,032 in the previous year.

The percentage cost of the Department to revenue collected comes to 56.

The graph appended will show the comparative figures of revenue and expenditure during the past 10 years.

As almost all the agriculturists and Criminal Tribes living in the villages adjoining the forests receive forest produce free or at reduced rates, the cash realisation does not show correctly the capacity of the Forests for Revenue production

Famine Relief Measures.

10. In view of the grave situation created by the failure of rains this year, His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur had graciously been pleased to order as under:—

- (1) The forest be thrown open for free grazing for all sorts of cattle except goats and camels.
- (2) Free removal of head-loads of grass and Khakla for bonafide domestic use as well as for sale.
- (3) No road-cess on head loads or cart-loads of grass passing through the forest areas shall be charged.

Arboriculture.

11. The arboriculture operations which are mainly confined to the environs of the City of Jodhpur form one of the important activities of the Department. The Nursery at Colonel Loch's well was maintained as usual, but owing to the paucity of rains the trees were adversely affected. 3,613 plants were issued this year against 7,026 plants last year.

At the close of the year there remained 12,254 plants that required watering against 23,094 plants last year.

The expenditure under this head came to Rs. 22,793 against Rs. 22,611 in the preceding year. A slight increase in expenditure is due to erection of two more water-taps at new Cemetery and new race course.

CHAPTER IV.

Public Utility Departments.1. Medical Departments.*(A) Medical Department under the Principal Medical Officer.

Mr. E. W. Hayward, F.R.C.S. (Ed.) was in charge of the Department as Principal Medical Officer throughout the year, under the control of the Home Minister. When out of station, Mr. J. N. Madan, F.R.C.S. (Eng.) acted for him in addition to his own duties as Medical Officer-in-charge of the Windham Hospital. The year opened with 39 hospitals and dispensaries and one Aid-post. It was marked chiefly by the opening of one more Aid-post, the enlargement of the Windham Hospital and the re-building of the dispensaries at Nagaur and Mirpur Khas.

Medical Officer and Institutions.

The new Aid-post, which started functioning from 15th September, 1939 is situate at Sanderao and has been built at the expense of Seth Sagarmal Chimnaji, whose name it bears. This philanthropic Seth has also donated Rs. 10,000 towards the expense of maintaining a doctor at the Aid-post instead of a compounder, as is usual in such places. The donation towards the running costs of a medical institution is the first of its type ever received by the Medical Department of this State.

An entirely new hospital of an up-to-date design and finish was built by the Jodhpur Railway at Mirpur Khas. It is the first district Hospital to be fitted with a complete electric installation. A new ward at the Merta Road Dispensary was also provided by the Railway.

The small dispensary at Shergarh was enlarged and brought up nearly to the standard type of a district dispensary.

The Windham Hospital enlargements were completed in February and included a block for twelve tubercular patients and rooms for six isolation cases, which were paid for out of part of the Silver Jubilee money. Increased accommodation for the nurses as well as for eye patients and midwifery cases was also provided at Government expense. The hospital, which started in 1932 with 247 beds and was subsequently increased to 249 by the addition of two in-cottage wards, now has accommodation for 291 in-patients.

The most notable event to be recorded in regard to the progress of medical relief, was the opening of the Seth Shri Vallabh Ramdeo Pithi Hospital at Nagaur. It was opened by His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur on 30th November, 1938. The entire cost of construction of the hospital including the water supply from the Railway station has been borne by the Seth.

Temporary dispensaries in connection with famine relief works have recently been opened near Mandore, Kherapa, Khinvsar, Kolia, Barli and Sendra and also with the Emigration Officer's Camp near Nasirabad. The year, therefore, closed with 41 permanent places of general medical relief, besides the Isolation Hospital, Embryonic Mental Hospital, Leper Asylum and 7 temporary Famine Dispensaries.

The Isolation Hospital remained open throughout the year as also the Leper Asylum. The leprosy survey of the State was brought to conclusion during the year. Its report is under preparation. It has been decided to construct a Mental Hospital out of the money received in connection with the Silver Jubilee of His Imperial Majesty Late King George V and its construction is in progress.

Expenditure.

2. The actual expenditure during the year was Rs. 5,35,017 as against Rs. 5,30,687 in 1937-38.

Medical Relief.

3. There was a marked increase in the number of both out-door and in-door patients.

The figures of the attendance of patients are as follows:—

(a) All hospitals and Dispensaries.

Y E A R .	No. of patients.		Daily average.		Operations.
	In-door.	Out-door.	In-door.	Out-door.
1937-38	8,023	8,02,038	307.93	5731.41	41,567
1938-39	8,625	8,35,440	413.97	5500.20	48,675

(b) Windham Hospital only.

Y E A R .	No. of patients.		Daily average.		Operations.
	In-door.	Out-door.	In-door.	Out-door.
1937-38	4,333	1,59,132	259.74	1171.93	11,171
1938-39	4,489	1,67,676	273.69	1194.92	12,755

Inspections.

4. All hospitals, dispensaries and aid-posts were inspected at least once by the Principal Medical Officer who also performed a large number of operations in the mofussil while on inspection tours.

The Touring Team sent out from the Windham Hospital did many operations and is widening the field of medical relief in the districts.

Training of Sub-Assistant Surgeons.

5. Out of the nine students under training at Indore only one was in the final year of the course and he came out successful.

A great point of interest worth mentioning is that the Windham Hospital has been recognised by the Bombay College of Physicians and Surgeons as a post-graduate training institution for candidates for their D.O.M.S.

Prevailing diseases.

6. (a) Rabies—There were 499 cases of bites by rabid animals as against 377 last year and they were all treated in the Windham Hospital.

(b) Plague—No case occurred during the year, this being the eleventh consecutive year in which Jodhpur has been free from that disease.

(c) Cholera—No cases were reported by Doctors, though Vaccinators reported a number of imported cases of which no proof was received.

7. A cooperative Credit Society has been started in the Department and is running with very considerable success. Besides the members of the Medical Department those employees of the Public Health Department who wish to join it are allowed to become members.

Co-operative
Societies. Credit

8. Night classes for servants have been started, some of these taking the form of practical work, such as the recaning of chairs.

Night Classes.

(B) Umaid Hospital and Jaswant Female Dispensary.

The Umaid Hospital for Women and Children was officially opened on 31st October, 1938 by Sri Baiji Lal Sahiba in the absence of His Highness. The total cost for building and equipment amounted to Rs. 12,92,900. Patients were moved into the Umaid Hospital from the Jaswant Hospital on 24th September, 1938 and in the course of a few days the Hospital was in full working order.

2. Mrs. L. Tarleton was in charge of the Umaid Hospital and Jaswant Dispensary throughout the year except from 21st May, 1939 to 31st July, 1939 during which period she was on special leave when Dr. P. Gahlot officiated.

3. The following is the list of staff for the Umaid Hospital and Jaswant Dispensary:—

1. Medical Superintendent	1
2. Clerks	6
3. Assistant Surgeons	3
4. Sub Assistant Surgeons	7
5. Matron	1
6. House and Linenkeeper	18
7. Senior and Junior Nurses	6
8. Servants	128
9. Ambulance Drivers	2
10. Mistry and Fitter	2
11. Honorarium to Dentist	1

The work done in both these Hospitals during the year under report as compared with that of the previous year was as follows:—The figures for 1937-38 for Umaid Hospital are only for the last week of the year when the Hospital moved from the Jaswanti Female Dispensary to the new building.

On 2nd March 1939 the Hospital was visited by His Excellency the Viceroy and Lady Linlithgow who showed appreciation of the building and work being done. The Hospital has been full during the entire year.

Many private patients took advantage of the excellent accommodation afforded by the Private Wards including Her Highness Shri Maharani Sahiba of Rewa who was operated on by Mr. N. C. Lake, a London Surgeon.

(C) Public Health Department.

Charge. Mr. E. W. Hayward, F. R. C. S. (Ed.) was in charge as Director of Public Health throughout the year, with Dr. L. D. Sarronwala, D. P. H. (London) as Deputy Director, the latter also performing the duties of Health Officer of the Jodhpur Municipality. The department was under the control of the Home Minister.

Origin. 2. This Department has grown out of the Medical Department from which it was separated for the first time at the beginning of the last year (1937-38).

Vital Statistics 3. (a) In the past the vital statistics were collected only by the Municipality of Jodhpur City and submitted to the Principal Medical Officer for information. In the year 1937-38, under the guidance of the Deputy Director of Public Health in his capacity as ex-officio Health Officer of the Municipality, the system of collection of figures had been revised. The comparative figures are given in Table I.

The following are the summarised figures for the City of Jodhpur for the year under report:—

Total births 1-10-38 to 30-9-39	2,872
Total deaths 1-10-38 to 30-9-39	2,160
Birth rate per mille	80'3
Death rate per mille	22'8
Infantile mortality per 1000 births	161'3
Percentage of infantile deaths to total deaths	21'49

The detailed figures per month for births and deaths are given in Tables 2 and 3, while the causes of deaths are recorded in Table 4.

During the year there was no out-break of importance except that of small-pox. No cases of cholera or plague occurred.

(b) Previously no figures had ever been obtained from the districts but last year as an experimental measure ten vaccinators were sent out during the non-vaccination season to collect what information they could. This year all the vaccinators were deputed to collect these figures during the non-working season. Out of 4,455 towns and villages in Marwar including the retroceded villages and excluding Jodhpur City, the Vaccinators have been able to collect figures from 3126 towns and villages.

The summarised figures for the Districts are given below:—

Population of 3126 towns and villages (according to the Census Report for 1931) for which the figures have been collected				 14,29,240
Total births from 1st October 1938 to 30th September 1939.				 62,963
Total deaths —Do.—				 26,755
Deaths under 1 year				 5,628
Birth rate per mille of population				 37'05
Death rate per mille of population				 18'71
Infantile mortality per 1,000 births				 104'37
Percentage of infantile deaths to total deaths				 20'6

No reliance can be placed on these figures, as they were collected after a lapse of time and many cases must not have been reported.

A tabulated statement as to the causes of deaths recorded is given in Table 5.

4. (a) Small-pox as usual was epidemic and took a large toll. The number of deaths from small-pox in towns and villages is estimated to be 2,632. Epidemic Diseases.

Minor out-breaks occurred in the districts of Parbatsar, Didwana, Nagaur, Sambhar and Phalodi and in Jodhpur City.

(b) Cholera was not reported from the Jodhpur City and it is believed that this disease probably did not occur in the Districts also.

(c) Plague did not occur any where in the State during the year.

(d) Typhoid and Dysentery, as shown in Table No. 4, caused 220 deaths in Jodhpur City.

5. Once again the number of vaccinations shows a rise. The actual figures were as follows:— Vaccination.

Y E A R .						Primary Vaccinations done.	Re-vaccinations done.	Total.	Percentage of successful Primary Vaccinations.
1936-37	87,313	29,382	1,16,695	89'22
1937-38	85,542	46,764	1,33,306	84'64
1938-39	83,192	61,701	1,44,893	98'07

The inspection results for the year are as follows:—

INSPECTORS.	Number seen.	No. of villages.	Percentage of successful vaccinations.
Director of Public Health and Deputy Director of Public Health ..	8,363	243	88.35
Assistant Superintendent Vaccination & Inspectors	44,074	1,582	82.00

Since the beginning of 1938 lymph is being obtained from Patwa Dangar Institute in the United Provinces. The quality of the lymph obtained from this institute being better than what was previously obtained from Manpur Depot in Indore State, it is surmised that the higher percentage this year of successful results is due to the better lymph to some extent. Yet the success is largely attributable to an improved method of recording results more in accordance with the practice elsewhere.

It is estimated that probably 85 % of the population has now been protected by primary vaccination, which is compulsory.

Malaria.

6. Anti-malaria work was again carried out on a fairly large scale in the Jodhpur City.

The following anophelnic mosquitoes were indentified:—

1. A culicifacies.
2. A Stephensii.
3. A Sub pectus.
4. A Hyeranus.

Since December 1937 anti-malaria measures have been carried out in Marwar Pali and the result as judged from the spleen index are so far most encouraging:—

Spleen index in December 1937	.. 46 %
„ „ „ November 1938	.. 13 %
„ „ „ October 1939	.. 5 %

Tuberculosis.

7. Although the figures in Table 4 show only 70 deaths from T.B. in Jodhpur City, yet it is feared that this is a gross understatement and that many of those recorded as due to fever and other causes are really due to this disease.

There is every justification for believing the local idea that this disease is on the increase. During the last few months 359 people were tested with tuberculosis and 114 gave positive reactions.

Fairs.

8. Because of famine conditions in Marwar only two cattle fairs were held during the year, where sanitary arrangements were made. Lectures were also given on health and hygiene these being accompanied by magic lantern or cinema displays, and demonstrations of health activities were also held.

Propaganda.

9. Great stress was laid on propaganda for better and healthier living in the rural areas. During the year 42 cinema and 124 magic lantern lectures were given to rural audiences. Besides, Rural Uplift Exhibitions were arranged at Bali, Bhavi, Jaitaran, Sojat and Jalore. Before the opening of an exhibition in a particular part, the neighbouring villages were visited by the propaganda parties, who lectured on clean houses, clean villages and better living. The following figures will show the work done in this direction:—

Place of exhibitions.						Number of villages visited by the propaganda parties.	Prizes given for clean villages.	Prizes given for clean houses.
Bali	31	7	6
Bhavi	18	8	8
Jaitaran	52	8	10
Sojat..	41	6	10
Jalore	52	7	13

Prizes were also offered for the best babies, good hand-work, good-crops and good animals.

Leaflets and hand-bills on better and healthier living were distributed in large numbers.

10. Due to famine conditions obtaining in Marwar, the restriction imposed last year on the importation of Ghee had to be removed this year. Out of 38 samples of ghee sent for analysis, only two were found to be good.

Food Inspection.

18 samples of milk were examined for the Windham Hospital and all were found to be of approved standard, while of the 9 samples examined for the Darbar High School Jodhpur, 6 were found to be of approved standard.

A Pure Food Act is now under the consideration of the Government and it is anticipated that with its enforcement there will be a rapid improvement in the quality of food supply of the City.

11. Though correct figures are not available, yet it is known that many children died before they completed their first year.

Infantile and Maternal Mortality.

Ante-natal clinics which were opened last year at the two main hospitals and the Maternity and Child Welfare Centres of the Lady Chelmsford League continued their work, but in this field there is still scope for a very great deal to be done, particularly in the districts where no such facilities exist. A scheme for the training of local dais in the districts was drawn up, but had to be postponed for want of funds. It will be resumed, however, as soon as the circumstances permit.

The research work at the Farm and other experiments in the districts by the Field Demonstrators are conducted under the directions of the Institute of Plant Industry, Indore.

Agricultural Farm at Mandore.

The Agriculture Department was reorganised in the year 1937-38. The Farm Officer was designated as Agriculture Assistant and the Field Demonstrators were placed under his supervision. The question of the expansion of the Department was postponed for a year owing to the acute famine conditions in the whole of Marwar.

Out of the total area of 179.5 acres of the Mandore Farm, 26 acres is enclosed by Pucca walls, and the rest is enclosed by stone slabs and wire fencing. The wall enclosed area is reserved for experiments in valuable crops, and cultivation of vegetables, while the rest is available for dry and wet cultivation and grazing for Farm cattle with rotation and fallow system. The area which is kept under cultivation is enclosed by stone slabs in order to afford effective protection from the ravages of wild animals.

In the year under report about 15 acres of land of the Mandore Farm remained under Rabi crops and 41 acres under kharif crops as against 20 acres and 54 acres respectively of the preceding year. Due to scarcity of rains in the year, followed by a winter frost the crops cultivated and the experiments laid out in the Farm practically failed with no satisfactory results. Experiments in Kharif and Rabi crops such as Wheat, Oats, Barley, Carrot, Ground-nut, Bajra, Linseed, Mangold, Toria, Sarsoon, Safflower and Jowar were carried out in a total area of about 3 acres. Besides, the experiments in making compost manure out of Farm waste and cattle sweeping, as per Indore rain-watered and standard process, were tried with success during this year yielding about 1000 maunds manure for Farm use against 1500 maunds of last year. About 75 maunds of bone char manure was also prepared and it was supplied to the fields after being mixed with the cow dung manure.

3. Agriculture implements and seeds of the improved and tried varieties were exhibited at the cattle fairs of Tilwara and Nagaur and at local exhibitions in the districts in order to create an interest in modern methods of farming, the gramophone machine purchased for this department was also used at these fairs and exhibitions for executing rural uplift propaganda.

Activities.

The Field Demonstrators carried out with a fair amount of success in Parganas of Sojat, Bali, Bilara, and Merta certain schemes received from the Institute of Plant Industry, Indore. The desired amount of success, however, could not be obtained due to failure of rains. Improved varieties of seeds of Wheat 8 A, Barley, C. 255, Jamnagar Bajra, cotton, ground-nuts and oats were distributed free as well as on Sawai Badi system to the cultivators as an experimental measure through the Field Demonstrators and the Hawala Hawaldars in the Districts. $1\frac{1}{2}$ maunds of seeds of Jamnagar Bajra, 1 maund cotton, 3 maunds of wheat, 2 maunds of Barley, and $1\frac{1}{2}$ maunds of ground-nuts were distributed free while 204 maunds of wheat 8A seeds, 4 maunds Jamnagar Bajra, 26 maunds cotton, 23 maunds of Barley, 4 maunds of oats and 5 maunds of ground-nuts were distributed on Sawai Badi system during this year under report.

Preparation of Bone-char manure was demonstrated extensively at different places and certain improved implements were practically demonstrated by Field Demonstrators from time to time in their respective circles to the cultivators. Some of these implements were also awarded as prizes to cultivators in appreciation of their good crops.

The scheme of fruit culture remained dormant owing to the failure of rains and unsuitability of the climate of this country.

The Agriculture Assistant inspected from time to time Agriculture Farms attached to the schools in the districts and gave technical advice and suggestions to the Farm Managers.

Training.

4. Out of the 10 candidates selected last year for Agriculture training at Mandore Farm, only three successfully completed their training, the remaining having left the class. These successful candidates will be given land to settle and Rs. 1,000 (Rs. 500 recoverable and Rs. 500 irrecoverable) as taccavi next year as the rains have failed this year. 10 more candidates were selected and sent to the Mandore Farm this year for receiving practical training in modern methods of Agriculture for 9 months. During the period of their training this year they showed keen interest in this line of work.

The Exhibition remained open to the public for 3 days and nearly 25,000 people visited it. The Exhibits were much appreciated by Their Excellencies and the public at large.

The Model Dairy and Cattle breeding research Station.

10. The Dairy Farm supplies milk, butter and cream to the Government institutions and the Public. General health of the livestock remained good throughout the year. There were 251 animals at the end of the year as against 155 of the last year.

The new buildings of the Dairy Farm were partially complete. The cattle were shifted to the new cattle yard where they had better hygienic surroundings and facilities. The main building for the Dairy work could not be made use of as the fittings and equipment were not completed.

In order to ensure supply of T. B. free milk to the consumers, all the Dairy cattle were subjected to Tuberculin Test. The Dairy now deals in 700 lbs. milk per day. The average supply of butter and cream per day is 7 lb. and 12 lb. respectively.

The Model Dairy Farm and the Cattle Breeding Research Station are being worked as single unit as they are interdependent. The Veterinary Investigation Laboratory was engaged in the diagnosis of various diseases by microscopical cultural and biological tests of blood and parasitological specimens and by conducting post-mortem examinations. As much of the material for investigation into the obscure disease of special nature has to be collected in the field, the Veterinary Investigation Officer did also out-door work for the purpose.

During the year 210 blood smears as against 128 in the previous year, 32 pathological specimens, and 28 parasitological specimens were examined, and 62 post mortem examinations were conducted. 123 aerobic and 123 anaerobic cultural tests were also carried out. The Parbatsar Fair had to be dropped on account of complete failure of rains. These fairs were well-organised and their special features viz. the Industrial Exhibition, the Propaganda and Demonstration Staff of the Animal Husbandry Department and similar Shows of the Agriculture and the Health Department, were the centres of culture and education for the rural population. Fodder depots for the facilities of the breeders and dealers were opened and efficient water arrangements were made as usual at each Fair. Adequate arrangements for Veterinary aid were made available by putting up of Temporary Hospital. The prevailing Famine conditions reduced the number of cattle inwarded this year as compared to that of the previous year by 1 to 4 at Nagaur and 2 to 3 at Tilwara, as a result of the migration of cattle from Marwar to neighbouring States. The total cash receipts of the Nagaur Fair were Rs. 4,230 and that of Tilwara Fair were Rs. 27,665.

Cattle Fairs.

20. This institution was transferred from the Police Department to this Department during May, 1939. Dogs are the chief reservoir of Rabies Virus. Sardar Sohan Singh held charge of Department throughout the year, the Department being under the control of the Revenue Minister. Administration.

2. The Department has been created for the administration of the Co-operative Societies Act which aims at the amelioration of the economic condition of the people. Function and Constitution.

3. The field establishment consists of the Registrar, one Inspector and five Sub-Inspectors one of whom is in the charge of the societies in the Retroceded Area. Establishment.

4. A study of the comparative figures of rainfall in the districts where co-operative societies are working offers interesting material for nature study and the tendency of rainfall. Bilara, Sojat and Bali with an average of about 19" received 6.46", 5.40" and 11.20" this year against 5.10", 20.21" and 20.20" of last year. Jaitaran, Merta, Parbatsar and Pali with approximately an equal average of about 17" received 2.78", 4.48", 5" and 9.39" respectively. The extraordinary departures and deficits from the averages have dealt a blow to the peasantry and cattle wealth of Marwar from which it may be hard to recover before a decade. To meet the situation the Government undertook extensive relief measures as have not been heard of in the history of Marwar. They combated the famine on all sides and in all respects. Cheap and free grass and grain depots, facilities in emigration, arrangements for grazing facilities in other States and Provinces, arrangements for drinking water, stopping of execution of decrees and issue of Taccavi loans were the chief measures adopted to face the calamity. There were no crops in the dry and single cropped areas. In the double cropped areas sowings of both Kharif and Rabi were restricted and the out-turn of the irrigated areas was satisfactory. Rainfall and Agricultural Conditions.

5. An important feature of the year was the visit of Lala Bal Kishan P. C. S., Deputy Registrar, Co-operative Societies, Delhi who was specially invited to scrutinise the work so far done, to report whether the movement was being conducted on right lines, to prepare a comprehensive programme for the future and to submit complete advice on the nature and extent of the monetary commitments devolving on the State. Visit of Lala Bal Kishan P. C. S.

His report bears out that loans are being advanced cautiously, repayments are satisfactory; shares are big and enough provision is made for thrift; loans are generally advanced for crop purposes and cattle; societies are being registered cautiously; the movement is catching ground; the members were found to be well taught and the work on the whole is done on sound lines.

6 (A) Agricultural Societies.—There are 22 societies with 318 members. They borrowed Rs. 14,124 from the Government and repaid Rs. 3,630 giving a percentage of Rs. 25.5. Interest due on the Government loans was paid punctually. Loans are advanced for raising of crops and for cattle only. Rs. 907 in cash and 141 maunds of grain were collected by the members towards shares and seed requirements. Accounts of these societies are recorded by the Sub-Inspectors. Constitution and Working of Societies.

7. (B) Non-Agricultural Societies.—There are 16 non-agricultural societies with 516 members. The two purely thrift societies and 6 thrift and credit societies did not borrow any loan from the Government. They are working with self-acquired funds. These societies are based on compulsory savings system. They are working in the Medical Department, the Darbar High School, the Jaswant College, the Central Jail and the State Hotel. One society is working amongst the Kayastha community of Jodhpur City. The Medical Department society is the biggest with 178 members who monthly save Rs. 317 at an average.

Two societies of the Mochies (Shoe-makers) at Pali and Sojat, one of the Silawats of Makrana and 5 of the Regars have 129 members. These societies borrowed Rs. 5,879 from the Government and repaid Rs. 3,612 giving 61 percentage. Interest due for the 12 months was paid to the Government. These societies have a great future.

There is extensive scope for different kinds of co-operative activities in the urban area and about these Lala Bal Kishan also made a specific mention in both of his reports.

Other activities.

8. The Department always took a leading part in Rural Exhibitions. In one society 60 cakes of soap were distributed for the use of members' children; also the common well was disinfected. Preaching was given to the people to keep their houses and bodies clean. In two villages the members co-operatively deepened a village Nadi and common well. In three villages, in the Windham Hospital and the Central Jail 5 Adult Schools are running for the benefit of the members. No fees are charged.

In four societies the members collected 141 maunds of grain for their future requirements. In two societies in Bilara Pargana 32 members collected their respective Bigori (Land Revenue) in a lump sum of Rs. 1,700 and credited into the Hakumat without inviting the Amin for the purpose.

Minister-in-charge . . . Rai Bahadur Lala Kanwar Sain, M. A., Administration.
Bar-at-Law.

Chief Judge, Chief Court. Lala Nawal Kishore, M. A., LL. B.

Puisne Judge No. 1, Chief Court. Muhta Ranjit Mal, B. A., LL. B.

Puisne Judge No. II, Chief Court. Lala Sukhdeo Narain, B. A., LL. B.

1. The beginnings of a regular judicial system in the State go as far back as 1837, when the appointment of a British Political Agent at Jodhpur led to the establishment of an original Civil and Criminal Court in that year and a Court of Appeal four years later. But no appreciable advance was made till the reign of Maharaja Shri Jaswant Singhji Sahib Bahadur. He established in 1882 a Board of Administration (called the Mehkma Khas), created fresh courts, introduced statutory laws and brought the Judicial powers of the leading Jagirdars into line with those of the State Courts after a proper definition and classification thereof. Introduction.

2. In the first decade of the present century, the Judicial machinery of the State consisted of 31 Darbar Courts and 45 Jagirdars' Courts. The Mehkma Khas was the highest Judicial tribunal and exercised full powers of revision and control over all the subordinate Courts and was practically the final Court of Appeal in both Civil and Criminal cases, its capital sentences and decisions in Jagir, adoption and other important cases being alone subject to confirmation by His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur.

3. The next important step in the development of the Judicial system was the establishment of the Chief Court in 1912, to which nearly all the powers of Mehkma Khas were transferred, besides original jurisdiction in suits of the value of over Rs. 10,000. The entire Judicial system was re-organised at the same time; the State was divided into four circles with a Judicial Superintendent in-charge of each Circle, the powers of all the Courts were properly defined, and rules regarding the examination and enrolment of Vakils were introduced for the first time.

4. A further reorganization of the Department was effected in 1924. The District and Sessions Courts took the place of the Foujdari and Civil Courts and the Court of Sardars; and the Courts of Naib Hakims were created for the first time. Since 1924, the jurisdiction of the Courts, both original and appellate, has been considerably modified.

Present Judicial system.

5. Besides the Chief Court, there were the following Courts, of Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction in the State at the close of the year under report.

4. Court of Small Causes	1
5. District Magistrate (and Chief Executive Officer) Retroceded Area ..	1
6. Hakims' Courts (including that of Joint Kotwal No. 1)	22
7. Additional Joint Kotwal No. 1	1
8. Special Magistrate (Temporary)	1
9. Naib Hakims' Courts (including that of Joint Kotwal No. 2 and the Police Magistrate)	14
10. Second Class Magistrate (and Tehsildar) Sendra	1
11. Honorary Court	1
12. Thikana Courts of the 1st Class	23
18. Thikana Courts of the 2nd Class	10
14. Thikana Courts of the 3rd Class	2
	<hr/> 87 <hr/>

The Judicial Officers in all the Courts except the following are invested with both Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction.

The Court of Small Causes is a purely Civil Court. The District Magistrate of the Retroceded area and the Second Class Magistrate at Sendra have criminal powers only. The Honorary Court has no Civil powers except for disposing of the cases that were pending in November 1936, when the Small Causes Court was established.

Revenue Courts.

6. There are separate Courts for Revenue cases. The Naib Hakims, the Hakims and the Judicial Superintendents are invested with the powers of Revenue Courts.

Retroceded Area.

With effect from April 1, 1938, 24 villages which were previously administered by the Government of India were retroceded to the Jodhpur State. For purposes of civil jurisdiction, these villages were placed under the Sojat Hakumat. For purposes of criminal jurisdiction the Chief Executive Officer for these villages was appointed a District Magistrate, and the Tehsildar was appointed as a Magistrate with Second Class powers.

The period for the retention of the Court of the Additional City Kotwal was extended by one year with effect from the 1st September, 1939.

The life of the temporary court of the Additional Joint Kotwal No. 1 was also extended for a further period of six months from 1st July, 1939.

The temporary Special Magistrate's court which was established in March 1938 ceased to exist with effect from 1st January 1939.

For the trial of Hindu Muslim Riot cases, a temporary Special Magistrate's Court was established, which worked for about two months (from July to August).

With effect from 30th August 1939 an additional Hakim Jodhpur was appointed temporarily for 2 months and invested with powers under section 30 of the Marwar Criminal Procedure Code, to try certain cases relating to Counterfeiting the King's Coin.

The Naib Hakim Jodhpur was appointed ex-officio Additional Joint Kotwal No. 2 in addition to his own duties with effect from April, 1939.

The Courts of Naib Hakims were created at Desuri, Bali and Didwana, in the months of May, June and July 1939 respectively.

On account of severe famine in Marwar this year extensive relief measures were adopted and the Hakims were relieved of their normal duties and put in charge of the Parganas as District Famine Officers. As a consequence of this arrangement the Naib Hakims were invested with enhanced powers on both the Criminal and Civil sides, and they were authorised to try suits upto the value of Rs. 500 (vide Mehkma Khas Order dated 17-8-1939).

On being released from the management of the Court of Wards, Thikana Riyan was invested with 3rd Class Judicial powers in December, 1938.

Under Ijlas-i-Khas Order No. 26 dated 11th January 1939, twenty three Thikanas were divested of their Judicial powers, with effect from 16th February 1939, and the Sardars of the remaining thirty six Thikanas were empowered to exercise these powers under certain conditions specified in the Ijlas-i-Khas order.

The Jhalamand Thikana surrendered the Judicial Powers in March, 1939.

7. Chief Court. On the Criminal side, the Chief Court exercises original jurisdiction in all criminal cases in which the death penalty is considered necessary and also in such cases against Tazimi Sardars as are sent for trial to that Court instead of to a Special Tribunal. Appeals against acquittals lie to the Chief Court. Cases in which a Sessions Judge is of opinion that capital sentence should be inflicted on the accused, are submitted to the Chief Court. Sentence of life imprisonment passed by a Sessions Judge is subject to confirmation by the Chief Court.

Judicial Courts.

Sentences of death awarded by the Chief Court, are subject to confirmation by Shree Darbar. The procedure in such cases is that a committee consisting of the Judicial Minister and one other Minister hears the case. A report is then submitted to His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur in Council and final orders are passed by His Highness. The prerogative of mercy is vested in His Highness.

Appeals against conviction by Thikana Courts lie direct to the District and Sessions Courts instead of to the Chief Court as heretofore.

On the civil side, the Chief Court has concurrent powers with the District Courts to try original Civil Suits of the value of Rs. 10,000 and over. As regards appeals, the Chief Court hears appeals against the original decrees of the District Courts. It also hears second appeals in a Division Bench from the decrees of the Judicial Superintendents' Courts and in a Single Bench from the decrees of the Hakims' Courts. Appeals against the original judgments of a Single Bench of the Chief Court lie to a Division Bench.

8. District & Sessions Courts:—There were four District & Sessions Courts, at the end of the year and their territorial jurisdiction was as follows:—

The jurisdiction of Court No. 1 is over the parganas of Jodhpur including the Jodhpur City, Phalodi, Shergarh, Bilara, Siwana; that of Court No. 2 over the Parganas of Barmer, Sheo, Jaswantpura, Sanchores, Pachpadra and Jalore; that of Court No. 3 over Sojat, Pali, Bali, Desuri and Jetaran and that of Court No. 4 over Sambhar, Merta, Nagaur, Didwana and Parbatsar.

On the Criminal side as Courts of Sessions, they have the power of awarding any sentence except that of death, but the sentence of life imprisonment passed by them is subject to confirmation by the Chief Court. Cases in which the extreme penalty is considered necessary, are submitted to the Chief Court. All appeals against conviction by Magistrates of the First Class lie to the Court of Sessions.

9. Judicial Superintendents' Courts:—There is a Judicial Superintendents' Court for each of the four Circles of Mallani (with headquarters at Balotra), Sojat, Sambhar and Phalodi (with headquarters at Jodhpur). The Mallani Circle comprises the Parganas of Barmer, Sheo, Jaswantpura, Sanchores, Pachpadra and Jalore; the Sojat Circle, those of Sojat, Pali, Bali, Desuri and Jetaran; the Sambhar Circle, those of Sambhar, Merta, Nagaur, Didwana and Parbatsar; and the Phalodi Circle, those of Phalodi, Siwana, Shergarh, Jodhpur and Bilara. The City Kotwal is the Judicial Superintendent for the Jodhpur City. Thus there are 5 Judicial Superintendents' Courts in all.

On the Civil side, the Judicial Superintendents have original jurisdiction in suits of the value of Rs. 1001 to Rs. 4000 and they hear appeals from the decrees of the Hakims and Naib Hakims. 11. Naib Hakims' Courts:—The Naib Hakims ordinarily try monetary suits up to the value of Rs. 200 on the Civil side for the first two years after their appointment, but after that period they are authorised to try civil suits of all kinds upto the value of Rs. 500. On the Criminal side they exercise third class magisterial powers for the first two years of their appointment, and after that period they are invested with second class magisterial powers. But even before putting in two years' service the Minister-in-charge can in his discretion invest them with second class Magisterial powers and can also authorize them to try civil suits of all kinds up to the value of Rs. 500, if he finds any of them fit to exercise these powers.

12. Honorary Court:—There is only one Honorary Court in the City. Under the revised rules, a bench of three Magistrates sits in the Court instead of a single Magistrate.

On the Civil side, they try monetary suits upto Rs. 100 and on the Criminal side they are Third Class Magistrates, taking cognizance of the offences coming under sections 171, 174, 277, 299, 323, 336, 341, 352, 374, 426, 447, 510 and 504 of the Marwar Penal Code.

13. Jagirdars' Courts:—The Civil powers of the Jagirdars are as follows:—

- (a) Jagirdars with first class Judicial powers may try Civil suits of all kinds upto the value of Rs. 1000. Jagirdars with Second Class Judicial Powers may try Civil suits of all kinds upto the value of Rs. 500. Jagirdars with third class powers may try civil suits of all kinds upto the value of Rs. 100.
- (b) In the case of suits of a value above these monetary limits, the Jagirdars have powers to pass consent decrees upto any amount. In the case of contested suits of a value above these monetary limits the Jagirdars, after taking the plaints and examining the parties, send up the file to the Chief Court. If the Chief Court thinks that the case is of too intricate a nature to be tried by the Jagirdar, it sends the case to the State Court concerned for disposal, otherwise it returns the suit for disposal by the Jagirdar himself.
- (c) The criminal powers of the Jagirdars' Courts are lower than those of the corresponding Magistrates presiding over the State Courts. Jagirdars with First Class Judicial powers can award punishment of imprisonment upto six months and of fine upto Rs. 300 or imprisonment upto three months in default of payment of the fine. Jagirdars with Second Class Judicial powers can award punishment of imprisonment upto three months and of fine upto Rs. 150, or imprisonment upto six weeks in default of payment of the fine. Jagirdars with Third Class Judicial powers can award punishment of imprisonment upto one month and of fine upto Rs. 100/- or imprisonment upto one month in default of payment of the fine. In Criminal cases, appeals against conviction by Thikana Courts lie to Sessions Judges concerned. In Civil cases also, appeals against decrees of the Thikana Courts lie to the District Courts.

14. Ijlas-i-Khas:—The highest Court (above all these ordinary Courts of law) is the Ijlas-i-Khas, or the Court of His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur himself who is the Fountain-head of Justice.

The Ijlas-i-Khas is the highest Court of Appeal. If an appeal is admitted, it is generally heard by a Judicial Committee consisting ordinarily of two or more Ministers, appointed by His Highness on the recommendation of the Chief Minister. The Committee, after going through the file and hearing the parties, or their counsel submits a report to His Highness for final orders. All sentences of death passed by the Chief Court are subject to confirmation by His Highness.

Civil appeals can be preferred to the Ijlas-i-Khas in cases noted below:—

- (1) (a) the cases when the value of the subject matter in the suit exceeds Rs. 2,000.
(b) the decree is certified by the Chief Court to be a fit one for appeal to Shri Darbar.
- (2) In the case of appeal falling under (a) an appeal shall lie only if—
 - (a) the decision is contrary to Law or some usage having the force of law.
 - (b) the decision fails to determine some material issue of law or usage having the force of law.
 - (c) Some substantial error or defect in procedure provided by the Laws in force in the State, has produced an error or defect in the decision of the case on its merits.

As regards Criminal cases, an appeal may be preferred to His Highness against an original order of conviction passed by the Chief Court or a Special Tribunal. It is also permissible against an original order of acquittal by the Chief Court or a Special Tribunal, if presented by the Public Prosecutor or the Government Advocate.

During the year under report, the number of Criminal cases decided by His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur was 19 (out of which clemency was granted in one case) against 15 in the previous year, and the number of Civil cases decided was 59 (out of which 8 were Committee cases) against 32 in the previous year.

I. CIVIL JUSTICE.

Original Suits.

Number of suits instituted.

15. The total number of original (civil suits) instituted during the year in all State Courts (excluding Thikana Courts) was 7,630 against 11,604 in the previous year. There is a considerable decrease as compared with the figures of the previous year (11,604), and of the year before that (9,033). This decrease was due to famine conditions prevailing during the year under report.

No case was instituted in the Chief Court during the year under report and only those pending at the opening of the year were dealt with. The number of institutions in the District Courts (4) was 91, in the Judicial Superintendent's Courts (5) 244, in the Court of Small Causes 852, in the Courts of Joint Kotwals (3) 268, and in the Hakumats 6,175. The number of institutions was highest in the Jalore and Sojat Hakumats (775 and 754) and lowest in the Shiv and Shergarh Hakumats (7 and 60).

16. Suits regarding immovable property numbered (including mortgages) 315, regarding monetary transactions 6,945 and regarding other matters 370. Details of the value of the suits instituted, will appear from the following table:—

Under Rs. 100	3,827.
Rs. 100 to 500	2,827.
Rs. 500 to 1,000	322.
Rs. 1,000 to 5,000	254.
Over Rs. 5,000	34
Not estimable in money	362.

Total .. 7,630.

17. There were 5,019 suits pending at the commencement of the year, 7,630 suits were instituted and 1,043 suits revived or received by transfer during the year. Thus there were 13,692 suits before the Courts for disposal as against 17,923 in the previous year. The total number of suits disposed of was 10,080 as against 12,904 in the previous year. Of the decided suits, 566 were disposed of by transfer leaving a balance of 9,514 actual disposals as against 12,480 last year. Of this number, 1,449 or 15 percent were disposed of without trial and 5,140 or 54 percent were decided without contest. Only 2,925 or 30·7 percent were decided after contest. The number of disposals of suits (excluding transfers) in the Chief Court was 1, in the District Courts 138, in the Judicial Superintendents Courts 320, in the Small Causes Court 1,044, in the Courts of the Joint Kotwals 381, in Honorary Court 7, and in the Hakumats 7,623. The number of suits pending at the close of the year was 3,612 as against 5,019 at the close of the previous year. Of this number 645 were more than one year old as against 558 at the close of the previous year.

The volume of the pending file has been considerably decreased. It is mainly due to the fact that the number of institutions as compared with the past year is low owing to famine conditions. There has been an increase of 87 in the old cases. This is explained by the suspension of civil work due to famine in month of August 1939 and the deputation of the Hakims to the Famine work.

18. The average duration of suits in all courts was 8 months 22 days in contested cases and 3 months and 26 days in uncontested cases, as against 11 months and 23 days and 5 months respectively in the preceding year.

19. The number of suits instituted in the Thikana Courts was 958 as against 1,445 in the previous year. Including 355 cases pending at the opening of the year and 47 suits revived or received by transfer, there were altogether 1,360 suits for disposal. Of these 1,162 were disposed of during the year as against 1,536 in the previous year. The number of suits pending at the end of the year was 198 as against 355 at the close of the previous year. Of this number, 21 were more than one year old as against 39 at the close of the previous year. The average duration of suits in Thikana Courts was 5 months 24 days in contested cases and 2 months 11 days in uncontested cases.

(b) Civil Execution cases.Institutions.

20. The number of execution applications received in all the State Courts was 9,754 as against 13,206 in the previous year. There is a considerable fall in the number of institutions, which is explained by the fact that owing to the failure of rains during the year under report the execution work in all the State courts was kept under suspension.

Disposals.

Including 5,560 applications pending at the beginning of the year, there were altogether 15,314 applications before the Courts for disposal. The number of applications disposed of was 11,281 as against 12,077 in the previous year, leaving a balance of 4,033 applications. The number of applications pending for more than one year was 993 as against 1,054 at the close of the year.

Of the applications disposed of 951 were transferred. Of the rest, 1,784 or 17 percent were fully satisfied, 3,987 or 38.6 percent were partly satisfied, and proceedings in 4,559 or 44 percent of the applications were wholly infructuous.

Value.

22. The total value of the applications filed was Rs. 24,57,703. Including the value of applications pending at the opening of the year, (Rs. 27,08,048), the total value of applications for disposal was Rs. 51,65,751. The amount of money realisable in the applications disposed of was Rs. 28,90,985. The amount realised in execution was Rs. 6,17,370 or nearly 21 percent.

Thikana Courts.

23. The number of execution applications instituted in the Thikana Courts was 734, (of the total value of Rs. 99,642) as against 1,126, in the previous year. Including 286 applications pending at the beginning of this year there were altogether 1,020 applications for disposal. Of this number, 848 (of the value of Rs. 1,68,511) were disposed of as against 1,147 in the previous year, leaving a balance of 172 (of the value of Rs. 42,406) at the close of the year. The amount realised in execution was Rs. 26,780 or about 16 percent of the amount realisable in the applications disposed of. The number of applications pending for over a year was 27, as against 43 in the previous year.

(c) Insolvency Courts.

24. The number of insolvency cases instituted in all Courts was 201 as against 334 in the previous year. 767 cases were disposed of as against 674 in the previous year. The pending file was reduced from 1,070 at the opening of the year to 504 at the close of the year.

II. Civil Appeals.

25. The number of regular civil appeals instituted (excluding those received by transfer) in the District Courts (4) was 201 as against 139 in the previous year and in the Judicial Superintendents' Courts, 909 as against 1,275 in the previous year. The number of miscellaneous appeals instituted was 48 and 191 respectively as against 49 and 186 in the previous year. The number of regular and miscellaneous appeals disposed of in the District Courts was 190 and 53, and in the Judicial Superintendents' Courts, 1,183 and 228, respectively. The corresponding figures for the previous year were 127 and 37 for the District Courts and 1,133 and 168 for the Judicial Superintendents' Courts respectively.

The amount of Civil appellate work before the District Courts showed a further increase during the year under report, and that before the Judicial Superintendents' Courts a considerable decrease. It is satisfactory to note that in spite of heavy institutions in the District Courts, the number of appeal cases disposed of by these Courts was sufficiently greater than those disposed of in the previous year. Though there was considerable decrease in the amount of work in the Judicial Superintendents' Courts, their disposals showed enough improvement as compared with the previous year. The pending file, on the whole, was considerably reduced, the number of regular appeals pending having fallen from 825 to 582, and of miscellaneous appeals from 172 to 130.

26. The average duration of civil appeals and revisions in all courts was 4 months and 11 days.

Average Duration.

27. The percentage of appeals and revisions in which the decision of the lower courts was confirmed was 53%, of the appeals in which it was reversed 18.5%, and of the appeals in which it was modified 9.5%. In the rest of the appeals the case was remanded, compromised or otherwise disposed of.

Results of Appeals.

Chief Court.

28. The number of regular appeals instituted in the Chief Court in the year under review was 791 as against 447 in the previous year and 355 in the year before that. The number of miscellaneous appeals and Civil revisions was 51 and 245 as against 78 and 254 in the previous year. The number of regular appeals disposed of was 771. This exceeded the figure for the previous year by 334 and the figure for the year before that by 361. The number of Civil revisions disposed of was 234 as against 269 in the previous year and 249 in the year before that. The number of miscellaneous appeals disposed of was 62 as against 77 in the previous year.

The disposal kept pace with the increased institutions, but the volume of the pending file (of civil appeals and revision) increased to 212 and 232. There was no appeal case pending over one year as against 3 cases pending over 1 year at the close of the previous year and 12 at the close of the year before that.

29. The number of review petitions filed was 24 as against 34 in the previous year. 26 petitions were disposed of leaving a balance of 4 as compared to 6 at the opening of the year.

Full Bench cases.

32. The number of civil transfer petitions (under section 24, Civil Procedure Code) filed during the year was 72 as against 75 in the previous year. 14 were pending from the previous year making the total of 86 for disposal.

Transfer cases.

The number of applications disposed of was 81, 37 being accepted, and 44 refused. The balance of Civil transfer applications at the close of the year was 5 as against 14 at the close of the previous year.

III Criminal Justice.

Number of Offences.

33. The total number of offences reported during the year was 6,646 as against 8,188 in the previous year. The number of cases brought to trial (in the State Magisterial Courts) was 5,831 as against 6,480 in the previous year. The decrease is due mainly to a fall in the number of petty challans in the Police Magistrate's Court. Leaving aside these cases, there was no appreciable variation in the figures of criminal return either as a whole or with respect to any important class of offence.

The number of original criminal cases brought to trial in the various courts will appear from the following statement:—

Sessions Court (4)	53
District Magistrates (7) including Additional Kotwal and Chief Executive Officer, Retroceded Area	130

The decrease in the number of records weeded out is due to the fact that the records weeded out in the previous years were those of Hakumats and were properly arranged and the work could go on faster. The records now weeded out were of the Court of Sardars and other older records which were not properly arranged and it took the office much longer time to separate the papers to be weeded out from those to be preserved.

EXTRADITION.

52. The relations of the Government of Jodhpur with the British Indian Government as well as with other Indian States in connection with the extradition of criminals continued to be cordial.

1. Police Department.

Khaa Bahadur M. R. Kothawala held charge of the Department as Inspector Administration. General of Police until 30th October 1938 when Mr. H. A. Carless M. A., LL. B., I. P., succeeded him, the Department being under the control of the Chief Minister. Thakur Bakhtawar Singh was Deputy Inspector General of Police throughout the year. There were 9 Superintendents and two Deputy Superintendents. The post of Deputy Superintendent of Police was abolished and a new post of Principal, Police Training School was sanctioned during the year. A post of one Prosecuting Inspector was abolished and a new post of one Prosecuting Deputy Superintendent of Police was sanctioned. 55 postal escort sowars were retrenched but 25 were kept in reserve. 80 constables were recruited temporarily in connection with Jodhpur City riots and 100 more for famine purposes. The services of one Inspector who had reached the age of 55 years were retained for two months as he was investigating the City Riot cases.

In the Paraganaas of Bali and Jalore which are inhabited by a large number of Criminal Tribes, there are a number of Radhari Chowkies manned by Minas who regularly patrol the roads within their respective beats.

A number of Camel sowars have been transferred from the Hakumats and they escort the Imperial mails on certain routes in Marwar. Escorts on some of the routes have been brought under reduction.

The Police has to guard the District Jails and Treasuries and other places and escort prisoners and treasuries.

Another branch of the Force is the Criminal Investigation Department which is an organisation to collect intelligence and to help the regular Police in investigating crimes of complicated nature.

With a view to deal with Crimes, specially on the Jaisalmer border, Police Lorries have been posted at Phalodi and Sheo.

2. The total sanctioned strength of the Police Force was 158 officers, 1,673 rank and file foot and 973 mounted in all 2,804. Besides these, there were 180 temporary constables, 1 Inspector and 37 road Cess Chowkidars and 80 permanent watch and wardmen and 45 road Cess Chowkidars. The total cost of the forces was Rs. 9,69,290 against Rs. 9,31,843 in the preceding year. The proportion of policemen to the population of the State was 1 to every 1,035 while that to the area of the State was 1 to 17 sq. miles.

In 1885 the Jagirdars were made to pay in cash and an irregular Police Force was created under the control of the Hakims. In 1905 a regular Police Force consisting of 1,500 men of all ranks was formed at an annual cost of 2½ lakhs of rupees under the History.

Inspector General of Police. In order to improve the efficiency of the Police Department, services of Sardar Bahadur Shamsher Singh, Mr. G. A. Cocks, I. P. and Khan Bahadur M. R. Kothawala, O. B. E., were obtained as Inspector General of Police. Mr Kothawala worked for 19 years continually.

The first Police Act and Rules there-under were passed in 1905 and in 1916 it was redrafted. At the same time Jagirdars' Judicial Powers Act was passed which gave certain powers of investigation to Thikanas invested with Judicial powers.

Duties and Responsibilities.

5. Of late years duties and responsibilities of the Police have considerably increased. In addition to the duty of detection of crime, they have to deal with communal tension, political activities and complaints against Thikanas. In February 1939 the number of Thikanas invested with Judicial powers was reduced from 54 to 36 which meant increase of work for the Police. These Thikanas are empowered to investigate only certain Criminal cases. Efforts are being made to obtain better cooperation between the Thikana and the State Police Force.

Police Training School.

6. All staff posted in the districts was supposed to attend a month's refresher course in the Police line every 3 years. As they were often put on miscellaneous duties they could have no refresher course and this has therefore been stopped and is left to Superintendents and Inspectors who have been made responsible to see that the staff is smart and know elementary drill. As it is not possible to send out all Head Constables and Sub-Inspectors for training in law and procedure a Police Training School has been started in Jodhpur to train batches of 60 Head constables in a six months course.

Political.

7. There were no political activities worth mentioning except short-lived Communal tension between the Hindus and Mohomedans in the Jodhpur City where the situation was soon brought under control.

5. Court of Wards and Haisiyat Department.

Lala Panna Lal held charge of the Department throughout the year under the control of the Revenue Minister. Kanwar Hari Singh was Assistant Superintendent, Haisiyat Court while Mr. Sardar Singh, B. A., was Personal Assistant to the Superintendent Court of Wards throughout the year.

Administration.

I. Court of Wards.

2. The Act of 1923 with the Rules framed under it governs the working of this Department.

Introduction.

The Act specially provides for the protection of minors and their estates, but there are provisions under which estates can be taken under the superintendence of the Court of Wards on account of mismanagement or extravagance on the part of Jagirdars. There were 8 estates of this type under the management of the Court during the year under report out of which one was released leaving 7 at the end of the year.

3. The estates under the Court of Wards are managed (1) by direct management, (2) by Zimmewaries, (3) by Wards themselves in the capacity of Special Managers, or (4) by Ijara. There was not a single estate on Ijara during the year under report.

Mode of Management

The estates under direct management are grouped into a number of circles of Managers or Assistant Managers and sub-divided into charges of Hawaldars with head quarters at convenient places, with a view to facilitate the survey and collection work under the direct and close supervision of the Managers or Assistant Managers who are required to be constantly on tour for the purpose.

In the year under report, the expenses of management were met out of the Court of Wards Fund, which is constituted mainly of contributions paid by the estates at the rate of 8% in the case of those which are under the direct management of the Department, and 5% in the case of estates which are under Zimmewaries, Ijara or Special managerships. The cost of the whole of the staff in the former case is borne by the Department, while in the latter case the establishment is maintained by the estates at their own cost.

4. Adequate arrangements are made for the education of the Wards who are sent to the Mayo College, Ajmer, Rajput Schools Chopasni, Rajput Boarding House Jodhpur, and sometimes to the other local schools as deemed suitable in each case. For wards who are not of school-going age, arrangements are made at their respective villages under the supervision of the head-quarters officials. Those wards who are over age are sometimes sent to Sardar Infantry or Sardar Rissala for Military Training.

Education of the Ward.

5. According to the provisions of the Court of Wards Act, the estates are released ordinarily from the Superintendence of the Court of Wards on the ward attaining the age of 21, but the wards at the age of 18 or 19 are usually made special managers of their own estates with the staff of the Court of Wards, to enable them to get administrative training.

Release of the Estates.

Marriage Fund.

6. The object of the marriage fund is to aid the financially embarrassed Jagirdars on the occasions of marriage. The Court of Wards and Haisiyat Court estates contribute one per cent of their annual income to this fund. The interest earned on the investments, now amounting to Rs. 62,600 of the Court of Wards Fund is also added to the Marriage Fund. The savings of the Walter Krit Sabha were hitherto added to this Fund, but from this year under Council Resolution No. 25 dated the 21st May 1938 these savings have been transferred to the Sabha for being used by it at its own discretion. Out of this Fund loans are advanced and also free grants are made to the Jagirdars who are unable to meet the marriage expenses.

Establishment.

7. The salaries of the three officials, Superintendent Court of Wards and Haisiyat, Assistant Superintendent Haisiat and Personal Assistant to the Superintendent Court of Wards are charged to 'General Administration' while the entire cost of the rest of the head office establishment and Muffassil staff is charged to the Court of Wards contribution Fund.

The strength of the Court of Wards Muffassil staff at the opening of the year was 1 District Officer with one peon, 1 Circle Manager, 5 Assistant Managers with 5 Sutar Sowars, 34 Hawaldars and 2 Relieving Hawaldars. At the close of the year, the staff was 1 District Officer with one peon, 6 Assistant Managers with 5 Sowars, 39 Hawaldars and 2 Relieving Hawaldars. In addition to above, there were 4 Assistant Managers and 19 Hawaldars and clerks paid from thikanas which are charged 5% contribution as they bear the expenses of the establishment.

The estates under both the Courts (Court of Wards and Haisiyat) continued to be managed jointly by the Managers, Assistant Managers and Hawaldars under the supervision of the District Officer.

Contributions for management.

8. During the year under report the rate of contribution remained the same as in the preceding year i. e. 8% in the case of the estates which were under direct management of the Court of Wards, and 5% in the case of the estates which were under Zimmewari, Ijara or special managership.

II. Haisiyat Court.

18. The Haisiyat Court which is regulated by the Marwar Jagirdars Encumbered Estates Act 1922 is of the nature of an Insolvency Court for impoverished Jagirdars. Application to bring an estate under the Haisiyat Court can be made to the Minister-in-charge, by any State Department or by creditors or by the Jagirdar himself.

On receipt of such application, necessary inquiries are made under the Marwar Jagirdars Encumbered Estates Act to see if it is a fit case to be brought under the provisions of the Act, the Jagirdar is then disqualified from the management of the estate, and a scheme for liquidation of both public and private debts is drawn up, due provision being made for the expenses of the Jagirdar and his dependents, and the payment of the current Government dues.

Certain important advantages accrue to the debtor Jagirdars when the provisions of the Act are applied to them. The chief of these is the reduction of the annual state demands whenever it is shown that they are excessive. Similarly, substantial remissions of arrears of state dues are permissible. The arrangement is, therefore, of benefit to both debtor and creditor.

Every effort is made to develop the estates under the management of the Haisiyat Court and to pay off the claims of the creditors who otherwise would not receive anything at all.

As the practice of leasing out the estates has again been commenced, there are 37 estates on lease out of the total 181 under the management of the Court.

The Department was run at the expense of the encumbered estates, and the contribution was charged at 8% on the average income from estates under management and 5% on estates on Ijara, during the year under report.

19. The total receipts of the Department amounted to Rs. 26,010 and expenditure to Rs. 29,598 against Rs. 27,558 and Rs. 30,481 respectively of the last year.

In addition to the above, civil lunatics were kept in the Lunatic Ward, the average number of them being 16.

It will be seen, therefore, that the average lock-up figures of prisoners and civil lunatics for the year was 716·95 and a few children who were present with their mothers while the latter were undergoing their sentences or awaiting trial.

The average period of detention of undertrials was 64 days, but this figure really is of little value as it includes the times of a number of undertrials in the local subordinate courts who are released on bail very quickly. There were, however, three undertrials in one of these for over a year, one of them being finally acquitted. It thus gives an incorrect idea of the length of time that the higher courts take to dispose of cases, and it must also be remembered that many undertrials have been in custody in the districts for six months before they reach a higher court in Jodhpur. However, the conditions have not varied for many years and the figures for the last twelve years may be noted. They are 44, 53, 44, 36, 88, 48, 77, 82, 41, 96, 93, 69 days.

The health of the prisoners generally was exceedingly good. As before, all serious cases were sent to the Windham Hospital for treatment.

Jail Conditions.

3. Prisoners were for the first time issued with a double set of clothing, this being in accordance with the practice of British Indian Jails and enabled them to keep much cleaner.

A library was started and prisoners are now allowed books as in British India, though much difficulty is experienced as there are still only 561 books, all of which have been kindly given free of charge by various persons.

A school for juvenile prisoners with a convict master was started and a number of the youngsters can now read and write and do elementary arithmetic. Voluntary help in this school was given for a long time by several college students. This School as well as the warders' school is supervised voluntarily by one of the college staff.

Variations in the diet scales were made in order to bring them in line with British Indian scales, and improvements in the system of their purchase and issue were also made. The cost of feeding was Rs. 49 per prisoner per year against Rs. 51 of the previous year.

Jail Offences.

4. 227 Jail offences were reported against 84 of the previous year. It is considered that this increase is not due to an increase in the commission of offences but to their not being connived at by the staff.

Escape.

5. One prisoner escaped over the factory wall into the Press stores, which is not a difficult feat for a good jumper. He was, however, recaptured by the police at Beawar the following day and returned here.

Executions.

6. There were none this year, though two men are under sentence of death.

Releases and Special Remissions.

7. The release and special remissions granted on auspicious occasion were as below:—

Occasion.				Releases.	Remissions.
His Imperial Majesty's Birthday.	3	177
His Highness's Birthday.	3	64
Maharaj Kunwar Sahib's Birthday.	38	115

As usual all other eligible prisoners, whose dates of admission to and release from jail did not include one of these auspicious days, were granted remissions during their sentence in honour of them on the usual scales.

One prisoner suffering from incurable disease was also specially released.

8. The proposed Mental Hospital not yet being ready, civil as well as criminal lunatics are still kept here, where their conditions of life are certainly better than outside. Lunatics.

There are still 9 of the original batch sent in 1933 at the Mental Hospital, Lahore, while 1 is at Agra, but no more are being sent there or to any other British Indian institution as they are all overcrowded with patients of their own Provinces.

9. A large number of changes occurred in the staff during the year, many of the old employees including the Assistant Jailor, Lines Officer, Chief Head Warder and 3 clerks left service for various reasons including the physical incapacity. There is still room for much improvement among some of the survivors of this purge, but some of them and of the new men are beginning to show their capabilities and there is much less indiscipline now and this is reflected in the better observance of orders by the prisoners, though this still leaves a great deal to be desired. Staff.

Reorganisation in the duties and designations of the senior executive and clerical staff followed these changes.

Uniform is now issued free to all warders, the categories of warders and jail guards having been amalgamated and the system of uniform allowances stopped. The luckiest individual under this allowance system drew savings amounting to Rs. 181 when his account was closed.

A Staff Benefit Fund has been opened and a Co-operative Credit & Thrift Society formed with the help of the Department concerned. With the help of the same Department too, a school for the education of warders has also been organised with proper teachers and will start working from 1st October 1939.

Many of the staff have been trained in musketry and all are being given squad drill in turns, part of the garden having been converted into a combined drill and football ground, though the surface is not yet pucca.

10. New rules regarding the grant of special remissions and releases have been proposed, while those about the imposition of fetters and the disposal of unauthorised articles recovered have been introduced. Rules.

11. A part of the garden has been turned into a parade ground and a large area of it that was used for growing delicate fruits or vegetables has been dug up and replanted with the coarser articles required for the prisoners. This has necessitated the discontinuance of the issue of free dalis. Night-soil from the jail is now used as manure, thus making a big saving in the purchase of animal manure. Garden.

12. The Stores are in the process of complete re-organisation. Many unserviceable articles that had collected over many years were disposed of by public auction. Stores.

13. These are being overhauled in accordance with British Indian jail practice, though many of the older ones have unfortunately been much damaged by rats and white ants. Records.

Factory.

14. A record output has been achieved, the receipts showing an advance of over 25% on the previous year. The cessation of the practice of sending convict gangs to various bungalows to work has materially helped in achieving this result. The work of the Factory Instructor in dealing with a much higher number of convicts each day and a greater output per man has been most praiseworthy.

Buildings.

15. Many minor improvements were made in these by the P. W. D. no major work being undertaken. The minor improvements included the division of Barrack No. I so as to give separate accommodation for juveniles, the provision of a small stores office and one bathroom and several latrines for staff, remodelling of the stores, part of which was converted into a finger-print room, closing up of two verandahs to form record-rooms, improvements to one line of warders' quarters, to the modi's godown and to the factory entrance, the conversion of a verandah into a factory fuel store, the remodelling of the factory stores, including alterations to enable the tailors and mistri's shops to move there from the main jail and various alterations in the hospital.

Blood Transfusion Service.

16. It is a matter of great pleasure that when the Principal Medical Officer and Medical Officer I/C Windham Hospital called upon the convicts of this jail to offer themselves as donors for blood transfusion for patients at the Windham Hospital, every man in the barrack concerned came forward and offered himself. Thus there is a very adequate supply of blood for all normal medical requirements in Jodhpur.

Receipts and Expenses.

17. Receipts totalled Rs. 55,008 while expenditure came to Rs. 1,29,102. The increase under expenditure was due to the holding over of bills from the previous year and the greater expenditure on diet and uniforms necessitated by the greater number of prisoners.

7. State Soldiers' Board.

Rao Bahadur Thakur Chain Singhji of Pokaran and Thakur Hem Singhji continued to act as President and Honorary Secretary respectively of the Board under report.

The constitution of the joint administration has varied from time to time. In 1925, both the States agreed to appoint a Shamlat Board, which consists of two members, one from each State and an Executive Officer who is selected alternately from the Jaipur and Jodhpur States for three years and he is responsible for the administrative arrangements of the area. There is also a Controlling Officer who is alternately selected by both the States and who is of the status of a sub-Judge of the Jaipur State or Judicial Superintendent of the Jodhpur State. In order to provide employment to the cultivators test works at seven P. W. D. Centres were opened immediately. The daily average attendance at the P. W. D. Works was 27,431 persons during August and September, 1939.

For those cultivators who would not go to the P. W. D. Works, 102 relief works were opened under the civil agency at an estimated cost of Rs. 3,22,200. By the end of September, 1939, 20,372 persons were daily employed at these works.

The first portion of the Railway from Marwar Junction to Pali (19 miles) was completed in June 1882, and the line was extended from Pali to Luni Junction (25 miles) in June 1884; a further extension from Luni Junction to Jodhpur (20 miles) was opened in March 1885. In the same year, a proposal was put forward to link up Jodhpur with other important towns in the State, such as Nagaur and Makrana, and finally a through line to Bikaner was proposed. An agreement was accordingly arrived at between the Jodhpur and Bikaner States, which provided that each State should construct and finance the portion of the line in its respective territory and receive the profits arising therefrom, the combined line being worked under common management. The line up to the Jodhpur Bikaner Frontier (123·50 miles) was completed in December 1891. An extension from Merta Road to Kuchaman Road (73 miles) was completed in March 1893. The receipts during the year under head water supplied to the public and State Departments were Rs. 27,114 and 1,72,394 respectively as compared with Rs. 25,100 and Rs. 1,13,705 for 1937-38—the fall in the latter being due to curtailment of water supply to Gardens. The total expenditure on the maintenance of Water Works during the year was Rs. 2,03,479 as compared with Rs. 92,098 for the previous year, the increase being due to pumping and filtration.

Wells:—Under the Well Supply, four wells (Brahmbag, Girdikot, Nathsagar and Mahaminder) out of the 10 wells under P. W. D. were worked during the year. The DeCloset well at Mandore also continued to be worked for supply of water to Distillery and Dhobi Ghat. The total cost of pumping from the wells during the year was Rs. 41,680 and the quantity of water pumped out was 2,37,32,250 gallons resulting in a cost of Rs. 1-12-1 per 1000 gallons. The water pumped was in all cases (except the Distillery) supplied to State Departments. Cost credited to P. W. D. against the expenditure of Rs. 41,680 was Rs. 27,560 thus leaving a net debit of Rs. 14,120 to head "Water Supply".

The remodelling of the Jodhpur City distribution system was commenced with the work of laying of 9" and 7" C. I. pipe line from Mertia Gate to Siwanchi Gate and the existing filter plant was extended during the year.

15. Rainfall on Catchment areas.

Umedsagar:—Rainfall on Umedsagar area occurred on 11 occasions, totalling 6·82 inches. 14·61 ft. of water was received and at the end of monsoon the water level was 14·61 ft. in the tank.

Jodhpur Water Supply.

Kailana:—There was 8·67 inches of rainfall on the catchment area and 15·85 ft. of water was received. The gauge at the close of the monsoon was 33·30 ft.

Balsamand:—There was 8·28 inches of rainfall on the tank catchment area and 19·05 ft. of water was received and the gauge at end of the monsoon stood at 29·45 ft.

16. The difficulties in the construction of the Takhatsagar Dam, which was in progress at the close of the last year were finally overcome on the 11th December 1938. When water from Summair Samand began to be pumped into Takhatsagar Dam and side by side with bringing water in for the city use and establishing the sought for reserve storage, the completion of this Dam went on. The whole work was completed in March 1939 when it was inspected by His Excellency the Viceroy during his visit to Jodhpur.

Summair Samand Water Supply Scheme.

Pumping from Summair Samand went on up to 8th March 1939 from which date water was drawn from Sardar Samand upto 19th April 1939 when the pumping was stopped. The water level in Takhatsagar Dam on that date (19th April 1939) was 50·91 feet.

17. Due to failure of rains last year, scarcity conditions prevailed in Jodhpur, Nagaur, Didwana, Phalodi, Mallani Districts and also in the Retroceded Areas. A list of the works carried out through the P. W. D. to give employment to people in these districts is attached as Appendix "H".

Famine.

The rains having again failed this year, a special meeting was held on the 9th August, 1939 under the presidentship of His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur to consider "ways and means" and policy to be adopted to combat the famine. As decided at this meeting the following works, which were later supplemented by further works according to the growing needs for employment of famine labour, were started by the P. W. D. about the middle of August 1939:—

1. Gravel Road from Barmer to Jaisalmer border.
2. " " " Pachpadra to Shergarh.
3. " " " Sheo to Shergarh.
4. " " " Jodhpur-Agolai-Balesar.
5. " " " Jodhpur-Nagaur-Didwana.
6. " " " Phalodi to Jamba.
7. " " " Phalodi to Dechu.
8. Well at Dingsari.

Due to the absence of perennial rivers and also due to scanty rainfall it was realised from the outset that irrigation works could not be taken up in sufficient numbers to provide anything like adequate relief. In selecting famine relief works care was taken to see that the works selected were such as would be of lasting benefit. The bulk of the works opened, therefore, took the form of gravel roads, spread in a net work over practically the whole of the State, and particularly in the areas which were very badly affected by famine.

These Famine Works were in full swing at the close of the year.

Committee of Enquiry into the possibility of improving Underground Water Supplies of Marwar.

Stampe Committee.

18. The question of improving the water supplies in different parts of Jodhpur State has already been raised on several occasions and various opinions have been expressed from time to time on the many phases of this important problem. Two admissions were common to these examinations, viz. the serious shortage of water, both for drinking and irrigation purposes over the vast proportion of the Marwar plain and the precarious nature of the scanty supplies available from underground sources. The examination and arguments which took place in 1936-37 into the particular project then under consideration for the improvement of the drinking water supplies of Jodhpur City, focussed the general problem of water shortage in the view both of the Government and the people.

During a private visit by Sir William Stampe to Jodhpur in February 1939, Mr. Edgar, Minister for Public Works discussed with him at some length the possibility of improving the underground water supplies in general and of installing electrically driven tube-wells in particular. He also showed Sir William the remarkable drinking water canal and pumping system recently constructed under Mr. Edgar's administration as a supplement to the Jodhpur waterworks. A long discussion on these points was subsequently held (on February 13th) at Jodhpur between Sir Donald Field (the Chief Minister), Mr. Edgar, and Sir William during which it was agreed that although Mr. Edgar's various notes on the subject had shown clearly how remote were the chances of finding underground water in adequate quantities on a wide scale, there was still a strong body of opinion in the State which held that improvements by means of wide-spread borings and pumping installations were possible. A feeling seemed to exist in short that the Government had not fully explored the possibilities of developing the underground resources of the State for the relief of the people. The well-known fact that vast areas of the Western plains of the United Provinces, hitherto subject to the ravages of famine, had recently been secured against drought by electric irrigation from tube-wells and that similar experiments on a smaller scale were in progress in Bikaner and in the Punjab furnished a background for a feeling that the Government of Jodhpur had not fully investigated this possibility. Sir William ventured to think that if the evidence both for and against such possibilities were examined by independent and competent experts, assisted by agricultural advice, and an opinion were recorded on the subject one way or another, it would reinforce the Government's position in this regard.

The Jodhpur Government therefore invited Sir William Stampe to preside over an expert committee which was to be convened at Jodhpur early in April 1939, with the terms of reference outlined in the para below.

The committee was constituted as follows:—

1. Sir William Stampe, C. I. E. (Late Chief Engineer Irrigation Development U. P.) Chairman.
2. Dr. A. M. Heron, D. Sc., (Edin.) F. G. S., F. R. G. S., F. R. S. E., F. R. A. S. B., F. N. I., (late) Director of Geological Surveys, Government of India.
3. Dr. McKenzie Taylor, M. B. E., Ph. D., D. Sc., F. I. C., Director of Irrigation Research Institute Lahore.
4. Mr. S. G. Edgar, B. Sc., I. S. E., Minister of Public Works, Government of Jodhpur. (Co-opted as a Member during the proceedings.).
5. Mr. T. R. Low, M. C., B. Sc., I. A. S., Director of the Institute of Plant Industry and Agricultural Adviser to States in Central India and Rajputana, was good enough to attend the earlier meetings of the committee and contribute important suggestions and opinions from the agricultural standpoint. Mr. Low compiled Chapter VI of the report on the demand for and utilisation of water for irrigation in Marwar.
6. Mr. Bhopal Chand Lodha, B. Com (Bom.), Public Works Secretary, acted as Secretary to the Committee.

The terms of reference which were not specifically laid down by Government, may be defined as follows:—

- (1) On the evidence available from departmental records, geological reports (including such direct examinations, as might be possible in the limited time available), also from the oral statements of various witnesses to be examined to report whether any substantial improvements in the existing underground water supplies of the State can be effected both for irrigation and drinking purposes, and, if so, to make recommendations in this regard.

- (2) To report, on the evidence available, whether sufficient pumping load is likely to be forthcoming in the Marwar plain, to justify the installation of a widespread electric "grid" system which would enable village and other industries to be developed as a secondary objective. In this connection, the experience of what has recently been achieved in the United Provinces where the pumping load formed a basic demand for a widespread power system would be taken into account.

On their journey by air from Baroda to Jodhpur in the afternoon, of the 4th April 1939, Dr. Heron, Dr. McKenzie Taylor and Sir William examined the country in a general way and studied the relation between the Marwar plain and the surrounding hills from the run-off from which the greater proportion of the underground water supply in the plain is believed to be derived. At a preliminary meeting on the 4th evening it was decided to begin the study of documents and the examination of witnesses. Various witnesses were interviewed and cross-examined on 5th and 6th April, and discussions were held on the 7th and the 8th prior to the departure of Sir William Stampe and Dr. McKenzie Taylor by air to Karachi in the evening and of Dr. Heron to Calcutta.

Due to Sir William Stampe's unfortunate illness, the report of the committee could not be submitted during the year.

APPENDIX A.

His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur on the occasion of His Excellency the Viceroy's Visit to Jodhpur delivered the following Speech at the State Banquet on the 1st March 1939.

YOUR EXCELLENCIES, LADIES & GENTLEMEN,

A great, and I must frankly admit, a somewhat embarrassing honour, has come to me, in having to make a speech on this occasion. But at least I may begin with confidence because my first intention is to announce the pride and pleasure which I feel in being able to welcome Your Excellencies as my guests in Jodhpur.

I am genuinely happy over this, Your Excellency's first official visit to my State. As every one of us knows, these are vital times in Indian and international politics. It is most fortunate for us that at this juncture we have a Viceroy like Your Excellency at the helm of affairs. Your wide sympathies, and sincerity, your high ideals and sagacious statesmanship are guiding and steadying India at a critical time in her history. We all trust you, Sir, and look to you for guidance and support. Furthermore, we are gratefully aware of Her Excellency's tact and sympathy and, to mention one thing alone, Her Excellency's inspiration in the fight against the ravages of Tuberculosis has distinguished her as a true friend of India and its peoples.

The State of Jodhpur has been described in the past as an inhospitable desert, where, visitors were wont to die of thirst, if not of starvation. While modern conveniences have rendered us tolerably free from these ancient reproaches to our hospitality, there are some respects in which Jodhpur is conservative and still adheres with placid content to its ancient traditions. For example, we maintain here the tradition of a spirit of loyalty, which has remained to us untarnished through the centuries and shines today as brightly as ever. Something over 100 years ago an alliance was formed between the then Ruler of Jodhpur and the Hon'ble the East India Company. Since then, and after the British power became paramount we have lived in peace and prosperity in the shadow of the throne of our beloved King-Emperor, just as my people here, in this City of Jodhpur, have lived in the loyal assurance of care and protection for nearly 1200 years under the fort over-looking the city; a fort, which though now obsolete in a military sense, is still, I trust, a symbol of Rule and Protection.

Your Excellency, I venture to hope that the Government of His Imperial Majesty have no fault to find with the manner in which Jodhpur has fulfilled the solemn obligations which, as a junior partner, it owes to the Paramount Power. We are, Sir, by comparison with the mighty British Empire, a very junior partner, nevertheless, we have done our little bit to help the British Government here and there and we shall continue to do so.

Speaking from our side, we have no complaints to make. We have been helped and protected, we have been treated with consideration and courtesy. Thanks to the "Pax Britannica" which came into force early in the 19th Century, we have been allowed to develop along our own lines in peace and security. Materially we have prospered, in spite of very adverse climatic conditions. It would be tedious to recite all that we have done, and are doing to improve the condition of our people in the teeth of Nature's opposition but the monuments of our activities are visible to all. In matters other than material, we have, I think, retained certain values which appear to be in danger of depreciation elsewhere. Our people still observe, in spite of incitement from outside to the contrary, an old-fashioned spirit of loyalty and reverence for order. Our people are from many communities, yet we strive to give fair treatment to all. Our donations to religious institutions, whether Hindu, Muslim or Christian, will show, I hope, that in this Hindu State, religious impartiality is observed. And yet though we can claim a fair measure of political equanimity and material prosperity, we cannot escape from the general anxiety which broods over India, and indeed over most of the world.

At the root of this anxiety as we all know—lies the greed for power and intolerant domination exhibited by groups and parties in various countries. Where in former years religion was usually invoked as a pretext for the subjugation of others nowadays the catchwords are "liberty" and "democracy".

An Indian Prince who has inherited Rule and Tradition centuries old may be pardoned for viewing the present trend of affairs with some perplexity and mistrust. Of this much boasted "liberty" he can see little trace in many countries which proclaim it loudly. In regard to the much vaunted "democracy", he sees several brands in countries ruled in fact by one party and he observes with apprehension that even in parts of the Indian continent, there is tendency for one party to seek domination over all others after the intolerant and regimented plans of dictators. A good deal of the trouble seems to be caused by the intolerance and egotism of certain persons who consider that their views and opinions are the only correct ones and who in the sacred name of "the people" seek to impose their own views and opinions by force on every one else. With so many perversions of "Liberty" and distorted forms of "Democracy" before my eyes I may be excused for having decided to take my own line and my own time in the matter of political reform.

I am fully prepared and have been for a long time, to associate my people in an increasing measure with my administration in the Government of this State. The demand for a more liberal form of Government in which the people are more freely consulted is recent in this part of India; nevertheless, I decided some time ago to start reforms in real earnest, and we have recently—as Your Excellency may be aware—established Panchayats in our villages and Advisory Boards at the Capital and in each of our 21 districts. I consider that after centuries of what may be described as benevolent autocracy, it would be most unwise to advance in one stride to full parliamentary Government, such as has been evolved after centuries of trial and error in England. My people will need to be taught for a few years to come a civic sense and how to use responsibility. But while the scheme is designedly modest in its initial stages, it is no sham and we shall, I hope, advance steadily but surely towards the goal which England has attained in this respect, profiting as we go by experience. I am not afraid of democracy on the British model, and I shall rely in the future, as my ancestors have done in the past, on the loyalty, good sense and sagacity of my people.

Before I close, there is one other subject which I wish to touch upon. I have not alluded to it as an "anxiety" because Jodhpur does not feel anxious on this subject, although from what I read in the press I judge it to be a cause of anxiety in some places. I refer to the All-India Federation. So far as I have been able to judge, Jodhpur has no need to shrink from entering this federation; indeed it may be said that in some State Departments we have been federated for years past.

I take it that the Federation is designed to make India a strong self-governing unit within the British Commonwealth of Nations, so that in the future we may, not only manage our own affairs, but stand side by side with Great Britain and the great Dominions of the British Empire in defence of liberty and a free constitution. If I am correct in this presumption, no opposition to the ideal can come from Jodhpur.

If Federation means that this State must be at least as well administered as the Provinces of British India, I, for one, am not afraid of the test and of the comparison.

For the rest, I clearly recognise that changes must come. It is possible that these changes will not suit the individual tastes of all of us, but that cannot be helped. I merely declare for steady, gradual change as opposed to rush tactics and violent upheavals. I am persuaded that by orderly evolution the greater good of the greatest number will be more safely assured.

I conclude. Your Excellency, by offering to His Majesty the King Emperor through you, his illustrious deputy, the loyalty and homage of myself and my people. Jodhpur State may be a comparatively small and unimportant unit of the Empire over which our King-Emperor rules, but in the stormy times which seem to lie ahead of us every little will help and Your Excellency may rest assured that Jodhpur will in the future, as in the past, be a loyal adherent.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, I ask you to rise and join me in drinking to the good health and happiness of our very distinguished guests, Their Excellencies the Marquess and Marchioness of Linlithgow.

His Excellency the Viceroy while proposing the health of His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur replied as under.—

YOUR HIGHNESS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

I thank Your Highness for the most kind words in which you have welcomed my wife and myself tonight. We have had the happiness on many occasions of meeting Your Highness elsewhere; and we have long looked forward to our first visit to Jodhpur.

Your Highness referred in your speech to the inhospitable character of the country in which Jodhpur is situated. but it seems to be very frequently the case that the hardships of Nature produce races of tougher fibre, of greater courage and loyalty and indeed of more generous and hospitable instincts than the countries which have been more favoured. The history of Your Highness' illustrious House and of your state offer a conspicuous example of the truth of this tendency, and there are not wanting many evident proofs of its continued persistence even in the changed conditions of the present. These adverse natural conditions, as Your Highness has mentioned, are not reflected in any lack of material prosperity. I can indeed congratulate Your Highness very warmly on the material progress to which you can point. Careful and sound administration are reflected in the annual income of your state; in your substantial reserve of nearly 4 crores of rupees; in such admirable institutions as the Windham Hospital and the New Female Hospital, which can challenge competition with the most completely equipped of their kind in India; in the swift and effective steps taken to establish a water supply system which includes a canal 55 miles long; in the generous annual expenditure of your state on medical and educational work; in a sound and reliable railway and public works system; and in your large and well organised Police Force. Your Highness' Military Forces and their high efficiency are well-known; I need say no more than that the Jodhpur Lancers form part of them.

At Jodhpur Your Highness possesses one of the most up-to-date aerodromes in India. It is fitted with electric equipment for night landing and is a main aerodrome on the Trans-India route. It is used regularly by three Trans-India services and in 1937-38, as many as 877 machines landed there. This achievement has been made possible by the great personal interest which Your Highness has always taken in flying.

Indeed aviation in India owes a great debt to Your Highness. Yourself a distinguished air pilot, you maintain a Flying Club in Jodhpur and you have always given the most willing assistance to the Royal Air Force. It is therefore with particular pleasure that I am able to announce tonight that His Majesty the King Emperor has been pleased to confer on Your Highness the rank of Air Commodore in the Royal Air Force.

Your Highness has rightly pointed out that material advancement is not the sole end of good government, and I have listened with pleasure and appreciation to your views on the aspects, (to use your own words) other than material, of your policy and your administration. Your Highness has mentioned the religious impartiality of your Government and your concern to give fair treatment to all communities alike. The absence of communal troubles in Jodhpur is due, I would suggest, in no small degree to the confidence and contentment which the application of that policy by Your Highness and Your Highness' Government have inspired. And if that old fashioned loyalty and reverence for order in Jodhpur to which you have referred remains unshaken, it is not least, I am confident, because Your Highness has shown yourself personally worthy of such loyalty, because of the keen and immediate interest you take in the happiness and progress of your State and its inhabitants, and because the guiding principle of your administration, your own close interest in which I am aware of and applaud, has been the good order of your State and the welfare of your people. The energetic measures taken by Your Highness' Government to bring relief to the stricken areas in the State which are suffering from a failure in the Monsoon last hot weather are but one example of this. In addition to a large sum set aside for famine relief, I understand that fodder depots have been set up to assist the emigration of cattle in search of pastures; free grazing is being arranged wherever possible and taccavi is being distributed on a generous scale.

Your Highness in your speech mentioned that you were, and that you had been for a long time, fully prepared to take steps to associate your subjects in an increasing measure with your administration in the government of your State. I am aware of the steps Your Highness has taken to that end, details of which you gave us tonight, by establishing Panchayats in villages, Advisory Boards in many districts, and a Central Advisory Board. It is in these days, as Your Highness clearly appreciates, of vital importance not only that administration should be conducted on sound and up-to-date lines, but that adequate provision should exist for the ventilation of legitimate grievances, and for bringing to the notice of the Government of the State the wants and the suggestions of its subjects. The detail of such provision must, of course, vary with circumstances, and it is clear that no rigid uniformity of system can wisely be expected. The nature, equally, of the arrangements to be made to achieve these objects must be for the decision of the Ruler. I trust sincerely that the system Your Highness has described to us tonight will prove of substantial benefit to your people and will win their appreciation. In wishing all success to Your Highness in your progress towards the goal which you have set before you, I would add only that in these days of stress and change it is of real importance, if arrangements of this nature are to bear full fruit and to achieve the object you have in view, that their adequacy and the smoothness with which they are running should be under constant scrutiny, so that such adjustments or such changes as practical working may indicate to be desirable or necessary may admit of being made with the minimum of difficulty or friction.

I have listened with attention to Your Highness' remarks on the vital question of Federation, and the objects and the ideals which Federation represents; and I welcome what you tell me of your attitude towards this great question—an attitude all the more significant when we are dealing with a State of the importance and with the historic tradition of Jodhpur. I note too, with satisfaction, Your Highness' claim in this connection that you and your State can point to a level of administration as high as that of the Provinces of British India. The decision as to accession to the Federation of India this matter is one for Your Highness to take, and, neither in the case of Jodhpur nor in the case of any other State, will any pressure in regard to that decision be brought to bear upon a Ruler. I am glad to think that, on the judgment which Your Highness has yourself formed, and to the extent that you feel able at this stage to reach any judgment, Jodhpur has no need to shrink from entering the Federation.

Your Highness' assurance of Jodhpur's loyalty to His Majesty the King Emperor rest on more than words. Your Forces played a most distinguished part not only in the Great War, but in the many other campaigns in which their assistance was freely offered to the Empire and gratefully accepted. Your Highness was amongst the first last autumn when a crisis developed which led to the immediate threat of War to offer the assistance of all the resources of your State; and I feel no shadow of doubt that should the need arise, amongst the foremost to help the Empire in its need will be Your Highness and the State of Jodhpur.

Let me, in conclusion, thank Your Highness again for the warmth of your welcome to us tonight, and let me repeat how greatly we have enjoyed our visit to you, and how glad we are to see you in your own Capital, surrounded by your own subjects, and able to point to so many evidences of good administration and of Your Highness' constant anxiety to secure the welfare and the progress of your people.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I give you the health of His Highness the Maharaja of Jodhpur.
